28TH NATIONAL READING DAY, JUNE 19, 2023

Mary Mount Public School, Kattachira observed the 28th National Reading Day to honour the life and works of late Mr PN Panicker, the father of Indian Library Movement. This year we observed June 19 as Reading Day and as part of the celebration we conducted various activities and competitions for children in all three languages-Malayalam, English, Hindi. On the day of celebration after the morning prayer children took the reading day oath and then we had various competitions for all the categories.

Category 1- Poster-making & painting

Category 2- Newspaper Reading Competition

Category 3-Book-talk

Category 4 - PPT presentation

All the students participated in the activities and competitions enthusiastically, and they even understood the need of reading through which they can only grow more and more.

In addition to that we also observed Reading Week and Reading Month. As part of Reading Week we conducted activities like library tour for classes 1 - 5 and quiz competition for classes 6 to 12. The quiz was based on reading newspaper of the reading week from 19 June 2023 to 25 June 2023.

For celebrating the Reading Month we had Marathon Reading Quiz. We had a set of books including all the three languages to read. After the completion of reading we conducted a Mega Quiz on these books. From category -3 there were 47 students and from category - 4 35 students participated in the Marathon Reading Mega Quiz.

Other than that all the classes individually conducted different activities like reading newspapers, magazines, books, recitations, bhajans, skit etc .

The principal appreciated the winners and distributed the prizes. Thus we have celebrated this year National Reading Day /Week /Month in a wonderful manner.
